Application for Employment (Pages)

About the Position.

The library hires high school juniors and seniors to work as pages. Interest in working with books and people is a must. Knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System is preferred.

Duties include shelving and alphabetizing books, as well as dusting and straightening shelves. Pages may also be assigned other projects, including story time craft preparation, photocopying, creating displays, and other duties as assigned. Pages report to the Library Assistant, as well as to the Library Director.

Pages typically work 4 to 6 hours per week, with one or two Saturdays per month.
